PROPERTY HIGHLIGHTS

- Once a thriving mill town, the lodge was constructed in 1919 as a company owned facility to serve its employees for the local sawmill. In the 1940s, when the "company town" was sold, the Sierra Valley Lodge went "public." Quickly it became the favorite place to be for loggers, farmers, ranchers, cowboys, and locals in general. The word got out and increasingly tourists and passers-by were frequent visitors as well.
- Today the main lodge building h
